DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to amendment filed on April 8, 2008. Original application contained Claims 1-11. Applicant previously amended Claims 1, and 7. Applicant previously added new claims 12-15, and cancelled Claims 2-5, 8-11, 14-15. Therefore, presently pending claims are 14, and 15.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on April 8, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because of the following reasons:

Regarding independent claims 14 and 15 applicants argued that cited prior art does not disclose the claimed subject matter, and also argued that “participant key management that is being performed by Caronni is not the same as the manipulation of the IP addresses that is presently claimed”.

This is not found persuasive. The system of cited prior art [Caronni et al. (U. S. Patent 6,049,878).] clearly teach system and method of secure communication network resource access control for access information that involves a group key management component, coupled to a traffic distribution component, and has data structure for storing all the participant's keys. The group key manager is aware of all currently active recipients as identified from the session description information (i.e., IP address, keying material, and some identification) from the recipients. The participants are identified with an identification or ID number, the ID may simply correspond to the 32 bit IP address of the participant. The bit pattern of the ID of each participant defines which keys it shares with the group key manager (col. 5 line 59 to col. 7 line 54).

The participant key management component of a receiver holds a participant key shared with a sender and all receiving entities, and another participant key shared with the sender and to only one receiving entity (Fig. 1-5, col. 4 line 7 to col. 7 line 39).

As a result, the system of cited prior art does implement and teaches a system and method secure multicast transmission of data on Internet.

Therefore, the examiner asserts that the system of cited prior arts does teach or suggest the subject matter broadly recited in independent Claims and in subsequent dependent Claims. Accordingly, rejections for claims 14, and 15 are respectfully maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Caronni et al. (U. S. Patent 6,049,878).

Regarding Claim 14 Caronni teach a method a method for performing a secure multicast broadcast at a router, the method (Fig.1-5) comprising:

sending a received request to join a multicast broadcast at a user system to an Internet Protocol (IP) multicast address (col.5 line 13 to line 30, and col.6 line 20 to line 39);

determining if the multicast address of the request to join is associated with a multicast broadcast IP address (col.6 line 20 to line 39, and Fig.2, col.1 line 11 to line 40);

receiving an encrypted multicast transmission from a first computer system associated with the multicast address (col.5 line 13 to line 30);

if the request to join is associated with a multicast broadcast address, then removing the multicast broadcast IP address; decrypting the sent multicast broadcast (col.7 line 7 to line 39); attaching one of an associated or a local IP multicast address to the decrypted multicast broadcast (col.5 line 13 to line 30, and col.7 line 23 to line 67); and sending the decrypted multicast broadcast to the user system requesting to join (col.5 line 13 to line 30, and col.6 line 20 to line 39).

Regarding Claim 15 Caronni teach a router for sending a secure multicast broadcast, the router (Fig.1-5) comprising: a computer device (col.4 line 7 to col.5 line 12, and Fig.1, col.4 line 34 to line 50); configured to: send a received request to join a multicast broadcast at a user system to an Internet Protocol (IP) multicast address (col.4 line 7 to col.5 line 12, and Fig.1, col.4 line 34 to line 50); determine if the multicast address of the request to join is associated with a multicast broadcast IP address receive an encrypted multicast transmission from a first computer system associated with the multicast address (col.5 line 13 to line 30, and col.6 line 20 to line 39); if the request to join is associated with a multicast broadcast address, then remove the multicast broadcast IP address; decrypt the sent multicast broadcast; attach one of an associated or a local IP multicast address to the decrypted multicast broadcast; and send the decrypted multicast broadcast to the user system requesting to join (col.6 line 20 to line 39, and col.7 line 7 to line 67).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 2131

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
